Highest temperature yesterday, 76; lowest, 59.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

VOL. LXXXIII.—NO. 288.

HISOWNCHIEFS

LEMBERG MENACED ON THREE SIDES; GERMANS RAIDING TEXAS, FAIL TO HALT RUSSIANS

Fall of Czernowitz Regarded as Only Matter of Hours -Czar's Troops Cross Galician Border and Attack Sokul-Advancing on Kovel.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, June 13.-Lemberg, capital of Galicia, is threatened from three sides by the Russian armies under Gen. Brusiloff. The advance in Volhynia, Galicia and the Bukowina continued withou FOLLOW THIS WEEK substantial check during the last twentyfour hours. Field Marshal von Hinden burg's apparent movement for a gen eral offensive on the Riga-Dwinsk front tions were sent by the State Depart- has thus far failed to exert any influence ment to-day to Gen. Carranza calling upon the Russian drive south of the one of the Mexican raiders killed by American troopers following the raid on the Muscovite armies, and its fall is twenty miles northwest of Czernowitz according to official admission by Vienna The representations were sent as a the presence of Cossacks in Sadagora mediate withdrawal of the Pershing ex-been overrun by the Russians, who now medition from Mexico. Carranza's atten-are forty-two miles west of the point tion was also called in to-day's mes-sage to the fact that at the time of the Tortchin, twenty-two miles northwest of raid Villareal was clothed in a Car- Lutzk. Another force, to the south, has ranzista uniform and carried papers crossed the Galician border and is atonly forty-eight miles north of Lemberg The formal reply to the Carranza Vienna asserts the Russian attacks her Pressing On in Volhynia.

In northwestern Volhynia Gen. Brusiloff's troops have swept beyond Rojitche which they took a few days ago, and are in the immediate vicinity of the River Stokhod, an advance of about sixteen Kovel railway crosses this river it is note will reject Carranza's deless than twenty-six miles from Kovel for an immediate withdrawal. It The Austro-Hungarian lines here mand for an immediate withdrawa. The Austro-Policy and the Russia will contain a sharp rebuke for the lantuc be unexpectedly weak and the Russia rusge employed in the Mexican com- advance to the northwest seems irre to be unexpectedly weak and the Russian aployed in the Mexican com-in and especially for what offi-in an especially for what offi-in a final especially for the entire of the especial for the especial especial especial especial especial especial especial for the especial especial especial especial especial especial especial for the especial e cals here regard as Carranzas hash and gratuitous references to matters concerning the relations existing between the United States and third parties and his insinuations that President Wilson was keeping the troops in Mexico for Volhynia and the simultaneous progress olitical reasons.

At the same time it is said authorialise, that the American note will saively that the American note will southern Teuton armies between two omply with Carranza's demand for an southern of the intentions of this Government of the intentions of this Government of the carpathians. If the control of the intentions of this Government of the carpathians. He will be reminded again that at the taken the Austro-German right wing will be completely cut off from the armies in the north.

reclaimed his purpose to withdraw the orce under Gen. Pershing as soon as he bandits who attacked Columbus are captured or dispersed and asprily as the Carranza authorities obtained effective control over the situation as it has developed during the last twenty-four hours as shown by both the Russian and Austrian official reports. The Russians have added 3,000 officers and men to the number of prisoners taken since the offensive began. Compared with the This purpose, the note will say, has rever varied, and the Government of the United States strongly resents the imputations of bad faith contained in the communication from the defacto lovernment of Mexico.

To the end that this purpose might be peedly accomplished, the American retigy will say, the Government of the nited States earnestly sought the co-

The only point at which the Austro-Hungarian line seems to be still intact is near Kolki, in northern Volhynia, scuth of the Styr. Here, Vienna asserts, the Russians were beaten back in reckless use of the masses of troops.

Is Report-Whole Army

to Be Demobilized.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

hours later it began an attack on the newspapers, throwing stones and shouting "Long live the King!"

SUFF PUNCHES LEGISLATOR.

Mrs. Pennypacker Punishes Assemblyman Machold of Watertown.

SOCIALIST MAYOR IN SOUTH.

Brookneal, Va., Elects First Ever

Chosen in That State.

their attempts to cross the river, the Teutons taking 2,000 prisoners. The Russian official statement follows: To the northwest of Rojitche we approached the River Stokhod, dislodging the Germans.

West of Lutzk we occupied Tortchin On the Strypa front, north of Bob-ulintze, we captured Zarvanetza. We crossed the Dniester and cap-tured many fortifications, also Zal-echitchki and Horodenka.

Owing to the rapid withdrawal of the Austrians and Germans at many places before our southern army the number of prisoners has only slightly increased. The total now amounts to 1,700 officers and 114,000 men. The enemy left enormous booty behind. The Austrian War Office report folows: On the Pruth, south of Bojan, a Russian attack was repulsed. Enemy cavalry entered Sadagora, Sniatyn and Horodenka. At Burkanow, on the Strypa, Russian advances failed.

sian advances failed.

Northwest of Tarnopol fighting goes on uninterruptedly.

Near Sapanow a Russian attack was frustrated by our artillery.

To the southwest of Dubno we repulsed enemy cavairy.

In Volhynia the enemy's cavairy reached the sector of Tortchin.

Near Sokul, on the Styr, an enemy attack was repulsed.

Near Kolki attempts by the Russians to cross the river failed. The number of prisoners captured here was increased to 2,000

To-day's official German statement

To-day's official German statement

On the Dwina, southeast of Pubena (seventeen miles southeast of Jacobstadt), the fire of our batterles disposed of a Russian cavalry brigade. Northwest of Baranovitchi the ar-tfliery fire of the enemy was more The army of Gen. Count von Both-

The army of Gen. Count von Both-mer repulsed completely an attack made by the enemy, on the Strypa west of Przewloka. Near Podhaijze a Russian aeroplane was overpowered by a German aviator in an aerial bat-tle. The pilot and the observer, the latter a French officer, were captured. The aeroplane was saved. The Vienna War Office issued last force, light the following report:

In the northeastern Bukowina, Austro-Hungarian troops disengaged themselves from the enemy under heavy rearguard fighting. German and Austro-Hungarian regiments by a counter attack drove back a hostile force advancing northwest from Buczacz. Thirteen hundred prisoners were taken. On the height east of Wisniowiece a Russian attack was delivered this morning, but it broke down under our

East of Kozlow Austro-Hungarian scout detachments captured a Russian advanced post.

Violent fighting continues northwest of Tarnopol The positions near Vo-roblevka, which have been mentioned repeatedly, changed hands several

Along the Ikwa and in Volhynia was comparatively quiet yesterday East of Kolki we repulsed a Russian

ARMY BILL PROVIDES BRYAN DIM AMID 6 MONTHS TRAINING

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 1916, - Copyright, 1916, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association

New Measure Proposes to Bar Unsung, Unnoticed, He Ap-From Work All Youths Who Fail to Serve. Former Glory.

EMPLOYERS RESPONSIBLE NO PLANK AND NO FIGHT

Trained Citizens Liable to Ser- Greeted Only by Old Man of vice for 7 Years if National Crisis Comes.

WASHINGTON, June 13 .- At the inpulsory military training has just been his pocket to satisfy the driver, hoisted completed by Capt. George Van Horn his battered valise from the sidewalk Moseley of the General Staff of the War | and paused for a moment while he cooled Department.

In the new form the bill substitutes undertake a six months course of mili-noticed Senators Bill Stone and Reed or Navy departments credits up to a sketched and snapshotted. And maximum of two months exemption will stared with troubled eyes. be allowed against the six months re- | Correspondents avoided him. Art certificate from the Federal Govern-ment that he has taken the course or has been exempted.

Gives President Power.

The bill provides that the President shall decide annually which of the num-ber of recruits under the new system for the navy, and in his discretion President may, as the number of trained standing army and assign commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the reg-

It is provided that, after taking the prescribed course, the trained citizens shall be liable for seven years to mobilization and service in the field only in the event of a national emergency, In the event of such emergency, the youngest classes would be called first, leaving the older men who have married and assumed responsibilities until the Army officers favoring the new bill declare that much more effective training could be given in a continuous course of six months this in three annual courses of two months each. They estimate that, if the plan is put into operain a short time the national re-of "qualified" soldlers and sailors ould be increased at the rate of 800 .-

All Must Take Course.

By imposing on the concerns the pen-lities of requiring this service to be taken, it is said, the Government would be relieved of the responsibility of im-posing fines and prison terms on young nen just entering upon their careers.

posing fines and prison terms on young men may be entering upon their careers. The bill is so worded that the employment disability for young men who fail the prison of take the training, provided they the physically and mentally sound, will be against them until such time as the physically and mentally sound, will be against them until such time as the convention to lunate enthusiasm that the enthusiasm is a seage by leaving the country.

Army officers declare that the present may be period out and the left full strength of the production. As a femonated to get men to enlist in the regulars under the Hay resolution, has demonstrated, where the European war may have failed to demonstrate, the absolute necessity of some kind of commusor; training. On the ground that the National Guard of the various States is largely composed of married men with each of the country.

The Heyan That Was.

The Heyan Chair Was.

The Heyan That Was.

The Heyan Chair Was.

The May Seek Refuge in Monastir, Elevator Runner's Advice to called out and the ineffective efforts on Hughes, with no takers. This, he says, is the largest single offer that has been made.

SAM DIDN'T KNOW HUGHES.

ale:
"Agrees to pay the advance granted team, as an alumni trustee of Lafayette lowered, when a correspondent of The

DEMOCRATIC STARS

pears as a Spectre of the Silver Days With "Times Change."

St. Louis, June 13 .- An elderly man stance of Senator Chamberlain of Oregon | with a bald spot stepped from a taxi a complete redraft of his supplementary at the curb of the Jefferson Hotel this army bill providing for universal com- morning, fished some silver change from his moist face with a paim leaf fan.

His eyes, glinting and narrowing for the original requirement of two studied the throng, lingered upon it. He months annual military training for saw Senator J. Hamilton Lewis the cen young men between the ages of 18 and tre of an amused group. He observed 21 a provision requiring every able Murphy of Tammany avoiding a surge bodied male citizen of the country to of the curious and his face hardened. He tary training during the calendar year in of Missouri beaming upon their adwhich he reaches the age of 18. In the case of young men who have attended military academies approved by the War of Mississippi being interviewed and

Although the measure does not impose any direct penalties on young men who refuse to take the training, it provides for a fine or imprisonment, or both, for any individual, firm or corporation who employes any young man above the age of 18 who is unable to show a certificate from the Federal Govern to laugh behind their bands at certain mannikins of fun. The drum major of a band preceding a delegation into the hotel elbowed him to one side. He submitted without protest.
Somebody asked: "Who is that man?"
Somebody replied: "Oh, that's Bryan."

"They Flee From Me."

A Missouri Democrat who knows Scripture recalled Job's plaint to Bildad the Shuhite and quoted it, quoted it without scorn, rather with a note of sympathy: "They abhor me, they flee appeared into the elevator car, the most unregarded person in the whole gather-

These men are no longer hypnotized he shall not interrupt their harmonious oratorio in honor of Woodrow Wilson. Whatever of enthusiasm they had for him is decayed and dried up. They have a sort of superstition about him. He is bad luck. Misfortune clings to him. Doubt and suspicion follow at his heels. The change of feeling is amazing. That Bryan could show his face among a company of Democrats without impelto wave, cheers to resound seems un-thinkable. That he could walk through the lobby of a hotel jammed with hundreds who once hailed him as the peerthe fanaticism of crusaders appears un-iliness and yet fighting to the last, always acclaimed, even by many of the men who had begun to set their faces against that I am not in favor of imposing arti-four years later at Denver and again his sincere admirers and the men who hoped merely to get something out of im tore their throats with yells. Bryan, the and twenty minutes, a record until the yell for Roosevelt at the Chicago Bull ed up and said: Senatah, please, suh, when is the showed his face. His headquarters prowhite folks going to nominate in St. vided the news, all of the thrills and the shrewdness of his brain and the music of his voice he made Woodrow Wilson the nominee of the convention Chester Thompson, a curb operator, reports an offer to bet $60,000 to $50,000 and so President of the United States.

Ilis Magie Has Waned. Something has occurred in the last the utter eclipse of such spirit and Lafayette Electa Baseball Man an Alumini Trustee.

Easton, Pa., June 13.—The election of Harry N. Hempstead, president of the New York National League baseball lafayette behind his back, head larged when a correspondent of The

WILSON ORDERS ATTACK ON HUGHES OUT OF PLATFORM; WELCOME WIRED TO MOOSE

PLANKS IN THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

QT. LOUIS, June 13 .- The Democratic platform, as framed for the convention and assured of adoption, contains planks on the fol-

Praise of the Wilson Administration as one of great achieve-Strong defence of the President's foreign policy predicated on the desire to maintain a strict neutrality and for this country to remain at peace. Approval of the President's plan for a peace league among Reaffirmation of tariff for revenue only with recommendation for a tariff commission, and an anti-dumping measure.

Indorsement of suffrage, but leaving it to the States. Pledging the party to preparedness, and as an earnest of this pointing to the military and naval bills just passed. Indorsement of the Administration's ship purchase bill as a step in building up the merchant marine. Advocating clearer relations and greater cooperation with South American countries and rigid insistence upon the Monroe

Approval of the Rural Credits bill agreed upon in Congress and pointing to recent achievements of the Department of Strong approval of the President's course in Mexico, pursued with the idea of securing there a representative and demecratic government able to maintain order. Approval of the sending of the American expedition into Mexico.

BAKER ARRIVES, HIDING SOLE COPY OF WILSON PLATFORM

Tariff Plank Has No Protection Tinge-Preparedness and World Peace Are Strongly Urged-Suffrage to Have a Place-Gompers Has 16 Proposals.

of the Democratic platform is here. It general was discussed. The report that party itself in having called Judge Alton the tariff plank would have a protective B. Parker from the Court of Appeals things to it, even going so far as to defar from me, the days of affliction have arrived this evening in the satchel of taken hold upon me, I am companion Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War. It The Nebraskan, who had been three will stay there, or buttoned tight to Mr. can be dismissed. It is known that the like prospect that existed for a small sized fight in the convention plank Mr. Wilson has approved will repair these very men who had to-day no cheers mittee is appointed to-morrow. Then cause it was known that he carried the short interling bands to play, drums to beat, flags of the reporters, Secretary Baker said: "It is true that I have brought the gested by cuss them until the committee receives them. I have only one typewritten copy and I regard it as a confidential message go in 1896? A coming from committee received the confidential that I even put it under my pillow when I went to bed last night on plans, arousing the train."

Covernment ownership of telegraph of President Wilson and that he stands for the reflection of the sixteen planks which same lot of speech making next fall if the party leaders want him. The clearing up of Mr. Bryan's intentions has deepened the quandary in the train." Turn recollection back through the and I regard it as a confidential message

Wilson Bars Court Plank. To his questioners there was no doubt hat the Secretary spoke with authority ficial restrictions upon candidacies.

upon this matter. It means that the ommittee undoubtedly will give this lustices a quick death blow. Representative Hull still declares that up to you."

"'Justice Hughes, Sam,' I answered"

"Ah don't know as Ah ever heard much of him, suh,' Sam said thoughtfully the elevator boy as the youth slammed the gate up on the hesitating person and started his car downward with his grinning passengers, "the gentleman you."

"Justice Hughes, Sam,' I answered" of a hope that the nomination might fall to himself, but determined above all to himself, but determined above all that Champ Clark should not have it. Sion among those who are to handle the sive convention and I told him Col. Roosevelt had been nominated. He pot to greet him. A retinue bowed in his train. His name was the tail of the President, who has sent word."

"Justice Hughes, Sam,' I answered" of a hope that the nomination might fall to himself, but determined above all to himself, but determined above all than hope at the convention and that the American nave should be restored to its forms this year a demand that the American nave should be restored to its forms this year a demand that the American nave should be restored to its forms this year and than does the Republican plating the ghost of the hope and tracking Mr. Hughes, All than does the Republican plating the ghost of a hope that the nomination might fall to himself, but determined above all to himself, but determined above all to himself, but determined above all that the nomination might fall to himself, but determined above all day it has been the subject of discussion among those who are to handle the platform. It quickly became known, however, that it did not have the sanctive.

The league out attacking Mr. Hughes, All with the interview he day that the American nave and though attacking the nomination might fall to himself. But the nomination might fall to himself. But the nomination might fall than does the Republican plating the platform. It quickly became known, however, that it did not have the sanctive and the nomination might without preserve to the subject of discussion and the plating the platform. It quickly became known, Henry Morgenthau said in regard to > conducted on a very high plane and there will be no personalities in it." Frederick Lehmann, ex-Solicitor-Gen-eral, when he heard of the efforts that were being made to make this an issue and incorporate it in the platform, said: "This is going to be an intellectual campaign conducted on the highest level tions covering both subject matter and phraseology.

These the President has taken and mulled over, finally writing out the draft Mr. Baker has with him. Whether or not Mr. Wilson has made many changes in the planks as written by those whom he consulted will not be known until Mr. Baker lays his copy before the consulted to be a State question. With the arrival of the antis, led by Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge of New York, the suffrage battle lines have been drawn and the resolutions committee has its

Colby for Progressives to Join Democrats. FIGHT ON MARSHALL

McCombs Sends a Bid to

ENDED BY PRESIDENT

Bryan Ready to Speak in Convention; Will Stump for Ticket.

BALTIMORE SCARS STILL IN EVIDENCE

Party Leaders Worried Over Signs of United Support for G. O. P. Team.

Sr. Louis. June 13 .-- Secretary of War Baker's arrival here to-night ended the movement started by some of the Demcratic leaders to insert in the platform a plank condemning Charles Evans Hughes for resigning from the Supreme

The little prospect that existed for proceedings, at least of the committee nection there will be brought in the cratic brethren when he got here to-day President's recommendation of a non-by announcing once and for all that partisan tariff commission to investigate he did not intend "to start anything" he reached the Union Station at 6 conditions at home and abroad. An at this gathering of the Democratis, anti-dumping law also will be urged as He will not even lodge a protest be-o'clock, was met there by a reception, a means for keeping tariff rates on a fore the platform committee. He is to confine his efforts to that job, unless the convention should invite him to de-

Mr. Bryan also put an end to the talk that has existed of the possibility of his leading a pacifist party with Henry Ford. The Commoner made it known that he stands for the reelection

I have read your statement. It appears that Col. Roosevelt means to send his former enthusiastic followers stumbling to destruction. The proordially and Democracy cannot afford to make any serious crats differ so radically on questions like the tariff and preparedness that the later could not attempt to reconcile The league hoped to get into both plat-orms this year a demand that the Amer. The appeal to the Progressives is likely to be based chiefly on the personality and record of President Wilson.

Little Hope of Merger.

The calm that has settled over the Democratic hosts became the more marked when all likelihood of a tangle

the hose on the Vice-Presidential boom which Henry Morgenthau of New York had started for the Secretary of War

Western and Northern Democrats who have gathered in St. Louis are not at all optimistic over the outlook. The Southern delegates who are out for a holiday and confident of the future are not burdened with any anxiety, but the Democrats from the North and Soul patronage ple counter are in and they are not enjoying the festiva-

CARRANZATOLD State Department Points to Killing of Villareal by U. S. Troops. SHARP NOTE WILL

WASHINGTON, June 13 .- Representahis attention to the fact that the body of Pripet marshes. one of the Mexican raiders killed by coleman's ranch near Laredo, Tex., has regarded as only a matter of been positively identified as that of Lieut.-Col. Villareal, an officer in Car-sort of prelude to the American reply only three miles northeast of Czerno witz. Carranza's note demanding an im-which clearly established his identity. note, it was learned this afternoon, will not be forwarded to Mexico city before Saturday night or Monday. Before it goes there will be further conferences between the President and Secretary Lansing. A tentative draft of the note

Not to Recall Troops.

ned his purpose to withdraw the nited States earnestly sought the co-peration of the Carranza Government, to the extent of bringing about the tt and Obregon, which conferences United States hoped would result in agreement under which this coopera-GREEK KING LEAVES wo Governments could be most effec-

Gave Perbal Assurances. Although the Mexican representative these conferences declined to subo Gen. Scott, the note will say, such cerbal assurances as to lead the American Government to hope that effective action would be taken by the de facto sovernment to clean up the remaining andits and thus permit the expedition

The note will take direct exception to statements contained in the Mexican hote to the effect that Gen. Scott had promised Gens. Obregon and Trevino that no other expeditions would be sent across the line in the event of future raids and on behalf of Gen. Scott will eny that the latter had assured Gen. bregon that no expedition had been was to be sent in pursuit of the Glenn entertained regarding the promises Objegon the note will continue have been void of fulfilment owing to the apathy of the Mexican forces. In the meantme disorders on the part of law-less bands have continued and elements lostile to the United States have been able either through the connivance or the plan large anti-American demonstrations some of the principal cities controlled by Carranza and to incite the populace to take up arms against the United

Wants Deeds Not Words. der such conditions, the note will ithdraw its forces, the main and purpose of which has been hiraw the expedition at any time Carranza authorities are able onstrate their ability to take hold he situation and maintain order along WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 13.—Because he voted against the suffrage referendum in the Legislature Mrs. M. J. Penny-packer, a suffragist of Ellisburg, punched Assemblyman Henry E. Machold while the Mexican people is a matter of ex-ne concern to officials here. Many frencly of the opinion that it will it in a hostile demonstration that it will sult in a hostile demonstration that the force the American Government to town. n a hostile demonstration that fragists to-day.

Sizing up the outlook State Departofficials admit themselves handid by their inability to ascertain is behind these anti-American demonstrations that have been staged at Chihuahua city, Saltillo and other That an organized propaganda in character of the demon-but whether Carranza himin any way responsible is not that Carranza, already at the brink of on that his only chance lies in a Spectacular defiance of the United States It is known at the State Department that some of his subordinates have

Continued on Third Page.

"DO SOMETHING," SAYS ATHENS; FEARS RISING

the Secretary Considered

been ordered by the King.

Considerable excitement was caused through a hostile demonstration by a mob against the newspapers which have as a man in a creamy palm beach suit and two of his friends tried to wedge of the Capitol, was giving me a shine Bryan, Bryan, greatest man that ever their way in. "Come on, mister," the just before I left Washington," said Sen-lived! They cheered him for one hour so disrespectfully to the Secretary of the Navy."

"Wall," drawled a tall man at the rear of the elevator, "come tew think use it, mebby this boy was right. Whut wuz it yew said, sonny? 'Dew somethin,' it's up tew yew.' It seems tew me like

MINERS OFFER A NEW SCALE. Price List is Submitted to the n the Pittsburg district, a committee the miners' union at the New York con-

Chosen in That State.

Lynchromag, Va., June 13.—B. F. Ginther, business manager of the Union Star at Brookneal, a Socialist paper, and himself a Socialist leader, was elected mine basis, with a general advance of the town of Brookneal to-day, with a general advance of the town of Brookneal to-day, with a general advance of the town of Brookneal to-day, with a general advance of the town of Brookneal to-day, with a general advance of the town of Brookneal to-day, with a general advance of the town of Brookneal to-day, which is being observed as alumni day at the mine basis, with a general advance of the class of the United Mine Workers of the town of Brookneal to-day, which is being observed as alumni day at the college was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni day at the college was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni day at the college was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni day at the college was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafayette College was announced to-day, which is being observed as alumni trustee of Lafa been in the stadium, became excited.

The police promptly arrested the disturbers, but the crowd had been aroused "Young me

LIFT BOY TO DANIELS

Good by Hearers.

Sr. Louis. June 13 .- A Jefferson Ho-Rome, June 13.—It is learned through tel elevator boy, following orders which tiplomatic channels here that King Consay that only eight persons must ride diplomatic channels here that King Constantine of Greece has left Athens for Larissa, as a precaution, because he fears that there may be a revolution in Greece. From Larissa he will be able to seek refuge in Monastir.

Athens despatches say that the second floor on a downward trip to-day and opened the elevator door. There are not seek refuse the second floor on a downward trip to-day and opened the elevator door. Athens despatches say that the complete demobilization of the army has at the time, a reporter from The Sun mob against the newspapers which nave supported former Premier Venizelos.

The trouble was started by shouts that a German agent had paid for the applause which greeted King Constantine at the horse show which had just been held in the stadium. The crowd, made held in the stadium. The crowd, made held in the stadium. The propose who had up for the most part of persons who had barred. "Come on-do something. It's Chicawgah, please, suh." grinning passengers, "the gentleman you looked up and said:

> Pittaburg Coal Operators. MONONGAHELA. Pa. June 13.—As a result of yesterday's meeting of delegates representing nearly 40,000 miners to-day submitted a wage scale to the Pittsburg coal operators' association in lieu of the scale adopted by officials of slammed the door upon up there was Mr. Daniels. You shouldn't have spoken this boy here is mighty keen on the issues of the day."

But He Asked Olie James When "White Folks" Would Nominate. Sr. Louis, June 13.—"Sam, an old the HUGHES FAVORITE IN BETTING. The Convention floor he raged like form because the President will never consent to it. This campaign is to be insults and dehances right and left. By $60,000 to $50,000 Offered, With

No Takers in Sight.

has been made.

He says there is no Wilson money yet in sight, but he believes this will be the higgest betting campaign on record.

COLLEGE HONORS HEMPSTEAD.

Something has occurred in the last four years, the years leading up to these, his days of obscurity. His magic has waned. His influence is dissipated. His fighting spirit seems to be dulled. He has come to be a looker on, a commentator of other men's acts and words. There's something of tragedy in all this, in the utter eclipse of such spirit and for revenue only principle and will insist William J. Bryan to raise a sufficient will be laid before those who are htat the Underwood tariff law is in ac-Secretary Baker's arrival had been awalted all day with intense interest be awalted all day with intense interest be to meet new conditions and in this con

It will admit that competitive tariff on resolutions, which frames the party platform.

The proceedings, at least of the committee on resolutions, which frames the party platform.

The proceedings are least of the committee on resolutions, which frames the party platform.

fairly competitive basis when foreign here merely as a reporter over-production might threaten Ameriwhether or not he was the custodian of work of the President himself, it is a personal compliment the Wilson draft. Answering questions known, discusses peace and recommends that this country seek to unite with other nations in a world's peace league as sug-gested by the President in his recent

The Navy League is taking an im-partial stand in its dealings with the Republican and Democratic platform Col. Robert M. Thompson of B. Lambert, vice-president, and Rear Admiral Osterhaus, have arrived here he will ask the committee to adopt such a plank and yesterday Senator Stone wworld. Instead of adopting such a declaration the Republicans, it is pointed out, contented themselves with merely "Such a plank will not get in the platwould be strong enough to protect both Republican plank lacks definiteness.

Navy League at Work.

we have ever seen. Any Democrat who detracts from that and seeks to inject personalities in it will do great harm some concern over the attitude the Democrat who detracts from that and seeks to inject generally expected. They are professing some concern over the attitude the Democrat who democrated in the concern over the attitude the Democrat who democrated in the concern over the attitude the Democrat who democrated in the concern over the attitude the Democrated in the concern over the concern over the attitude the Democrated in the concern over the It is the understanding to-night that the conviction has seized every one that the campaign is going to be close.

This issue was left largely to the Progressive four years ago. Senator J. Ham Lewis of Illinois and others from that State think that with the Progressive with Wilson.

Roger Sullivan's supporters from Cook county are still shouting his name and decorating the town with Sullivan posters, but no serious headway is beginning made. Marshall will be renamed with Wilson. North Carolina, for example, is known to have written the tariff part of this at the President's request. Senator Walsh of Montana also submitted, at Mr. Wilson's request, important suggestics with the progressive party sidetracked as it were, the women are watching the two old parties more closely, and that it would be good politics this year to first with them and if possible win them from the Republicans. The Southerners are opposed to the party going any further than the Republicans did, when the approved formally plainly realize that their seats at the of women voting, but declared it to be a and the resolutions committee has its The outlook for Senator Stone had a long talk with work cut out for it.

Court to run for the Presidency. Secretary Baker gave the leaders to understand that President Wilson was opposed to any such platform declaration. The President as well as many of the leaders here realizes that an at-tack of this character would be weak-ened by the record of the Democratic

Most of the Democratic leaders are of the opinion, however, that the party its desire to have Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana renominated, and what Presi-Louis without question or suggestion. The entire proceeding is being run from the White House, and this fact was all the more apparent after Secretary Baker Woman suffrage is going to receive arrived with the platform and the fluat more consideration from the Democrats instructions as to what the party leader Mr. Baker himself promptly turned

They complain of Co